Vikram Satwarao Deshmukh, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya Nanded (M.S.), India

Huge thanks for inviting me to attend this very interesting and informative Conference. The organization was excellent, thanks to all the efforts you and your team have made.

Mahade Hassan, Chattogram Maa O Shishu Hospital Medical College, Bangladesh

A very good platform in the combination of critical care physicians, microbiologists and pathologists. Timing of each speaker should be maintained. Program should must be strictly followed.

Fatima Zahrae El Bakri, University Ibn Tofail, Morocco

All the presentations and speakers are very interest for scientific committee.

Alexandra Maria Santos Soares, USF Cuidar e Receber - ULS Castelo Branco

It would be a good if you could reduce the registration fees because it is a big expense when combined with all other travel expenses that we have to make
